Oh My God!!! how is it that you got married and didn't invite any of us?! we therefore will revoke your invitation to our eventual wedding... :-) you look so amazing and elegant; what a beautiful dress, too. the cake looks really yummy, too, is that real? what kinda cake was it? is this a auto picture that Jim took or is someone taking it? it looks like he's pressing on something while looking great in his groom look.

details!! details!!! NOW! I have also copied Brian Cherry, too - we don't talk much anymore because PG&E has one fuck up after another on a daily basis so he's really busy.
