Get a coat

No because 1) it's a weekend and loads drops, and 2) there is a rainstorm coming in that will raise temperatures. We should be fine.

On the IRP, I got a call from a very nervous General Counsel. I told him the meetings were informal and private. No court reporters, legal counsel or transcripts would be taken. I also told him that there would be no PUC investigate staff present and that we should only send those people necessary to be responsive to the IRP (eg. Kirk and his lower level functionaries) but that wouldn't include lawyers. Hope I got that right !

Any worries for the weekend?
