

Town Hall on the San Bruno Pipeline Explosion

Sunday, December 19, 2 p.m.—4 p.m., San Bruno Senior Center
1555 Crystal Springs Road, San Bruno, California

Purpose: To provide residents with updated information on the pipeline explosion investigation, PG&E's efforts to increase natural gas capacity, and status of inspections of gas transmission lines. State and federal officials will be on hand to answer tax and insurance questions.

Agenda:

Opening Remarks: Congresswoman Jackie Speier, Mayor Jim Ruane

Update on the National Transportation Safety Board Investigation:
Mark Rosekind, Board Member, NTSB

Federal Oversight of the California Public Utilities Commission:
Zach Barrett, Director of State Programs, Pipeline and Hazardous Material Safety Administration

Oversight of PG&E's Efforts to Increase Capacity:
Richard Clark, Director of Consumer Protection and Safety Division, California Public Utilities Commission

Status of Transmission Line Relocation; Meeting Winter Demands:
Kirk Johnson, Vice-President, Gas Transmission and Distribution, PG&E

Available to Respond to Questions

Quinton Smith, Stakeholders Partnerships Education and Communication Director, IRS

Anthony Cignarale, Deputy Commissioner, California Department of Insurance

