Meredith,

Thanks for sending. Can we set up a call to discuss how this program is going to work with the interconnection reform underway? After reviewing your schedule, it seems to me that the only way a project can qualify is if it is studied independently outside a cluster. Was that the intent?

Thanks,
Jaclyn

Jaclyn, Sean,

Attached is the revised schedule. We filed the compliance filing today and plan to issue the market notice on Monday. The rest of the dates will depend upon the compliance filing.

Happy New Year!

Meredith
