

Redacted

Professional Experience: [Redacted] is President and majority owner of Visage Energy Corp., an energy consulting firm, which was formed in 1990 after 13 years in the banking industry. During his banking career, he was a corporate lending officer responsible for lending hundreds of millions of dollars to electric and gas utilities and major oil and gas producers. As a Vice-President at Banque Paribas, he had overall account responsibility for several oil companies, utilities, and energy companies (1982-1987). As a Vice-President at Fargo Energy Corp., he formulated the initial Form-10, and rearranged debts with creditors while Fargo Energy was emerging from reorganization (1980-1982). As an Assistant Vice-President at the Bank of California, he determined, through credit analysis, the feasibility of approving loan requests for onshore and offshore drilling companies, gasoline marketers/small refineries, utilities, and major petroleum companies (1977-1980). As a Corporate Lending Officer at Citibank, he was responsible for the overall client accounts of 12 electric utilities and natural gas pipeline companies and responsible for credit analysis and administrative management for loans totaling over $350,000,000 (1972-1977).

[Redacted] is a member of the Board of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners/Department of Energy (NARUC/DOE) WMBE Energy Market Access Partnership Board. In 1998, [Redacted] was presented with the DOE's "Outstanding Business Person of the Year" Award. He formulated and developed a unique financing facility, the Funds Transfer Agent Agreement (FTAA), to assist women and minority-owned companies, and other non-minority emerging companies. In 2010, Will was honored as a Champion of Diversity by the Utility Marketplace Access Partnership (UMAP) under the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC).

Education and Training: [Redacted] received his Masters in Business Administration from the Wharton Graduate School of Business in 1972. He majored in Business Finance with an emphasis on Speculative Markets, Financial Analysis, and Corporate Finance. He received his Bachelor of Business Administration at Temple University in 1971 where he majored in Accounting with an associated interest in Finance and Marketing Strategy.