Importance: High

Sorry if you have not received notice before. I will fix it.

Please find the Registration form attached. The registration deadline has been extended (due to the email errors) to March 9, 2011 before a late fee is imposed. On site registrations are also available with the $25 late fee added.

The session times for the agenda below will be sent out with the final agenda.

The Conference rate of $131 for one person and $145 for two may be closed. I still have a block of rooms (first come) if you haven't made reservations. I can transfer the reservation to you, just let me know the nights you wants.
