You can't fix it unless you go back to the first revised resolution. As long as this remains unresolved, we aren't instigating additional incremental money.

Hi there,

well, PG&E supported the Resolution...

I tend to agree that we need to fix this, but am hoping that we can internally come to an agreement so that we put the best product out for our Commissioners to decide which way they want to go.

PS - lunch next week or the following?

Perlstein has made a terrible mess of the Bonus Depreciation resolution. I hope you can right the ship because this is one of the worst pieces of regulation I've seen. In fact, I haven't seen something so mean-spirited and wrong since the energy crisis under Loretta Lynch.
