Subject: Hearing Monday

Two issues:

1) we talked about Florio issuing an ACR or something like that, but today it sounded like there was going to be a resolution for a vote ? Is that the direction now ? And,

2) after Simon's comments, I'm concerned that the hearing Monday stick strictly to the compliance plan.

I'm thinking a call from Frank to Hyun might clarify things or perhaps we do a conference call today with Tom, Hyun and the two of you ? Thoughts ?
