Paul - Tom is sending a draft letter tonight for you to review. I hope it meets your needs and expectations. If it doesn't, we need to know. I'd like to set up a conference call with Tom and you tomorrow in the morning if possible. Tom has a Board call at 1100am tomorrow and he would like to inform them of the status of where we are. Also, the Order to Show Cause was issued today. I'd like to see it withdrawn if we can reach an agreement but that might be problematical. If you need a penalty, perhaps we could agree to one in the letter. I'm thinking out loud now in the hopes that we can resolve matters going forward. Also, Hyun and Tom would like a face to face meeting tomorrow. That could be accomplished in the afternoon if you schedule is tough in the morning.
