Understood. I want to get your questions answered quickly if we can. Do you want to send them to me and I will get her folks working on them?

She isn't picking up or immediately answering my email so I suspect she is driving back from Sacramento. I will let you know as soon as I hear back from her.

Paul, Rich, Julie,
They JUST finished uploading the maps onto a CD; Bill Stock is on his way back over to deliver to you. We can have more provided to you in the morning but they each take awhile to burn so Bill is bringing you the first one now. The PG&E web site folks are also putting all of the same maps on PG&E's web site tonight so you should be able to find them there too.
