Subject: CPUC Thought Leaders Panel: Advanced Customer Engagement Platforms

CPUC Policy and Planning Division

Presents

A Panel Discussion on March 24th, from 2 -4 PM, in the CPUC auditorium at 505 Van Ness Ave., San Francisco.

Advanced Customer Engagement Platforms

Will Rewards, Competition, and Social Networking Motivate Consumers to Conserve Energy?

Our Panelists:

Tom Scaramellino, Founder & CEO, Efficiency 2.0

Preston Read, SVP, Government Affairs, RecycleBank

Jessica Alter, Founder & CEO, Formative Labs

Bruce Cenicerros, Principal Program Planner, Sacramento Municipal Utility District

Ivo Steklac, Executive VP, Sales & Strategy, Tendril

Sean Harrington, Senior Director, Client Solutions, OPOWER

The panel will discuss the ways that software platforms and social media may help customers manage their energy usage, cut their energy bills, and save money. The panel will discuss a number of customer engagement platforms that match publicly available data with a customer's own energy usage patterns to offer personalized information, advice, and rewards designed to enable and encourage customers to make more efficient energy choices.

The Moderator of this panel discussion will be Jenn Mitchell-Jackson of Opinion Dynamics.
