Subject: RE: CONFIDENTIAL: PG&E Response to Energy Division Data Request on RPS
Costs

Did PG&E assume 100% re-contracting for this? The $/MWh amounts don't seem to be making sense when dividing by PG&E's forecasted generation numbers.

Amy -

Attached please find PG&E's confidential response and attachment to your data request regarding an annual projection of RPS-eligible costs, dated February 24, 2011.

Please note - Data reflects annual forecasted costs for all approved Post 2002 RPS PPAs as of the date of PG&E's August 2010 RPS Compliance Filing, including RPS-Eligible feed-in-tariff contracts and QF contracts.

Please note - PG&E has tentatively marked all QF pricing information as confidential but expects that some, if not most, of the QF contracts will be outside of the CPUC-defined confidentiality period. Upon completion of its review, PG&E intends to revise the confidentiality treatment in this data response.
