Hello
Brian:

I would like to reiterate my interest in returning to PG&E. I had one interview for a Chief of Staff position since I last contacted you. Although an internal candidate was ultimately selected, your Executive Recruiting representative advised that there were other opportunities within the company that I would be a better fit for. However, I have not been able to connect with anyone from recruiting to further explore these opportunities. Therefore, I would appreciate it if you could again reach out to your Senior Director of Recruiting and request that someone from their staff contact me.

I appreciate any assistance you could provide.

Mike Malekos

Michael - I've reached out to our Sr. Director of Executive Recruiting. You should hear something by the end of the week.
