Alas, one and the same.....I will keep you off the list - assuming you aren't already on it ! ;-)

Nothing THAT detailed! Just the kind that hung on my wall at TURN since the early 80's, only newer and less faded with age . . . .
. . . ;- ) Mike

Brian
-- would it be possible for me to get a copy of the most recent PG&E system maps, especially gas but electric too if available. I'm too old-fashioned for the online stuff and my wall is aching for something I can point to when the discussion gets geographically detailed. I left all of my old ones at TURN and it's hard to get anything delivered on a timely basis around this place . . . . I don't think it would even qualify as a "gift" under our onerous conflict of interest rules!!

THANKS, Mike
