Subject: PG&E Draft Comments

Hello everyone. Per Jeannette's note below, attached are PG&E's draft comments for filing at FERC on the NIST standards process. Please note that this draft is proprietary and confidential, and still a work in progress that has not yet been approved by PG&E management, so please do not disclose further at this point.

We welcome comments, questions, suggestions next week, and look forward to working collaboratively with all of you as this important Smart Grid standards process moves forward. Thanks!
