Hi guys. Can I get a phone call back on this? I have questions about when the PUC might decide how to handle the $9.6 million pension issue, and what the options are. I don't want to put in 500,000 newspapers tomorrow that Prosper and Clanon didn't return calls.

Thanks,
Paul

Hi Mr. Clanon,

As you may have seen, the Mercury News ran a story on Saturday on the front page quoting Gov. Jerry Brown saying that ratepayers should pay none of the $35 million retirement compensation to outgoing PG&E CEO Peter Darbee.

This morning, the company's board held a meeting and announced that it -- not ratepayers -- would pay all the costs.

Steve Johnson and I are writing another story for the front page of tomorrow's Mercury News about this. I'm interested in talking to you on the phone today (408-920-5045) to get your reaction, and details about how the PUC might put this promise into effect. In other words, will customers get a credit on their bills? Will some other rate case be reduced? Some other method?

Here's the company's news release.

Thanks much,
Paul
