All I can say to that, as I take a sip of my Jameson's', is "Erin Go Bragh" and "BaShana HaBaah Birushalyim".

I will let the Talmudic scholar, the mensch Makler, translate that for you.

Thanks.

How does one celebrate the Greatest Jewish/Irish Holiday of the year, possibly the only one.

Paul—could you walk us through the dialectic of Ulysses? Frank and I will need strong drink, however in the true Irish tradition!

Enjoy!
