Paul,

I agree; I think the concern internally is whether the CPUC will approve it. Hopefully, approval will come without modification.

I know you're out in San Ramon today. We thought the Rancho Cordova coverage was very good. Factual and generally viewed through the lens of PUC as tough oversight.

Do you have time for lunch in the next week or so? I'm exploring using an outside consultant, Barry Phegan, to help us with culture change at the PUC, and I'd like him to get a sense of PG&E challenges in that area too.
