Subject: Re: Solar PV program update

Hi Jaclyn:

The advice filing is still on schedule, although there is a chance the filing date could slip to July 19 instead. We will have a better idea of final schedule by early next week, and I will update you again at that time.

Have a nice weekend,

Subject: Solar PV program update

Folks,

I'm just checking in to see if your Solar PV program is still on schedule and would like to know if you are still planning on submitting your contracts advice letter on July 15. If there are any changes in the schedule, please let me know.

Thanks,

Jaclyn
