Subject: RE: Walter Cavagnaro Death Notice

Larry Hirsch told me about it on Friday. I saw Walt at the Millbrae Safeway months ago and he appeared to have Alzheimers or something similar.

He was predeceased by his dear grandson, Matthew, the son of Ed and Barbara, his cherished sister, Lillian Wright, and son-in-law Tim Unger (Jane). Walter enjoyed golf, the Giants, 49ers, and Stanford and Cal athletics. He and Loretta loved dinner bridge parties, the San Francisco Ballet and Symphony, and especially travel around the United States and the world. He was devoted to his extended family. He was a wonderful son, brother, husband, father, uncle, father-in-law, grandfather and friend. He will be remembered for his warmth and kindness and will be greatly missed.
