Subject: PG&E Corporation and Utility Vice President Appointments

Fellow Employees:

To be successful, we need strong leaders and the right organizational structure to ensure our customers always receive safe, reliable and affordable service. To that end, we are pleased to announce that the PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company Boards of Directors have elected several new officers to our senior leadership team.

- Valerie Bell, Vice President, Information Technology Operations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company
- Nick Bijur, Vice President and Treasurer, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company
- Mark Caron, Vice President, Tax, Pacific Gas and Electric Company
- Ezra Garrett, Vice President, Community Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company
- Gun Shim, Vice President, Supply Chain Management, Pacific Gas and Electric Company
- Jason Wells, Vice President, Finance, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Below is additional information about each new vice president and their scope of work.

Reporting to Karen Austin, Valerie joined our IT organization in September and will assume responsibility for the delivery of technical and operational aspects of IT strategy, implementation and management of all operational IT initiatives. Previously, Valerie was Vice President of Information Technology at Sears Holding Corporation. Valerie brings more than 20 years of IT and operations experience to this new role. Please join us in welcoming her to PG&E.

Nick Bijur, Vice President and Treasurer, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Reporting to Kent Harvey, Nick will continue to have responsibility for all treasury and banking functions for the company. Nick joined PG&E in 2005 and brings more than 15 years of finance experience to this role.

Mark Caron, Vice President, Tax, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Reporting to Dinyar Mistry, Mark will continue to have responsibility for PG&E's tax strategy and maintaining our compliance with federal, state and local tax laws and regulations. Mark has 30 years of tax experience, more than half of which has been at PG&E.

Ezra Garrett, Vice President, Community Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Reporting to Greg Pruett, Ezra will continue to have responsibility for designing and implementing policies and programs to enrich the communities within our service territory. Ezra originally joined PG&E in 2000 and returned in 2007 after a two-year period with the Target Corporation community relations team.

Gun Shim, Vice President, Supply Chain Management, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Reporting to Des Bell, Gun will continue to have responsibility for the management of enterprise-wide supply chain operations, including the strategic sourcing of all products and services, supplier performance management, supplier diversity, materials, forecasting and distribution and inventory management. Gun joined PG&E in 2009 and brings more than 20 years of procurement management and operations experience to this role.

Jason Wells, Vice President, Finance, Pacific Gas and Electric Company

Reporting to Kent Harvey, Jason will assume responsibility for overseeing the utility's financial planning and budgeting. Jason joined PG&E in 2007 and brings more than 10 years of accounting experience to this role.

Jason will be taking over for Sara Cherry who has decided to take an extended leave of absence. We wish Sara the best and look forward to her return to PG&E in the future. Dinyar Mistry, who will continue in his current role as Vice President and Controller of PG&E Corporation and the utility, has also been named Chief Financial Officer of the utility.

Please join us in congratulating all of these individuals on their new roles and supporting them in our collective success.

Tony Earley, Chairman, CEO and President, PG&E Corporation

Chris Johns, President, Pacific Gas and Electric Company
