

From: Chatterjee, Bishu
Sent: 9/8/2011 3:56:23 PM
To:
Cc:
Bcc:

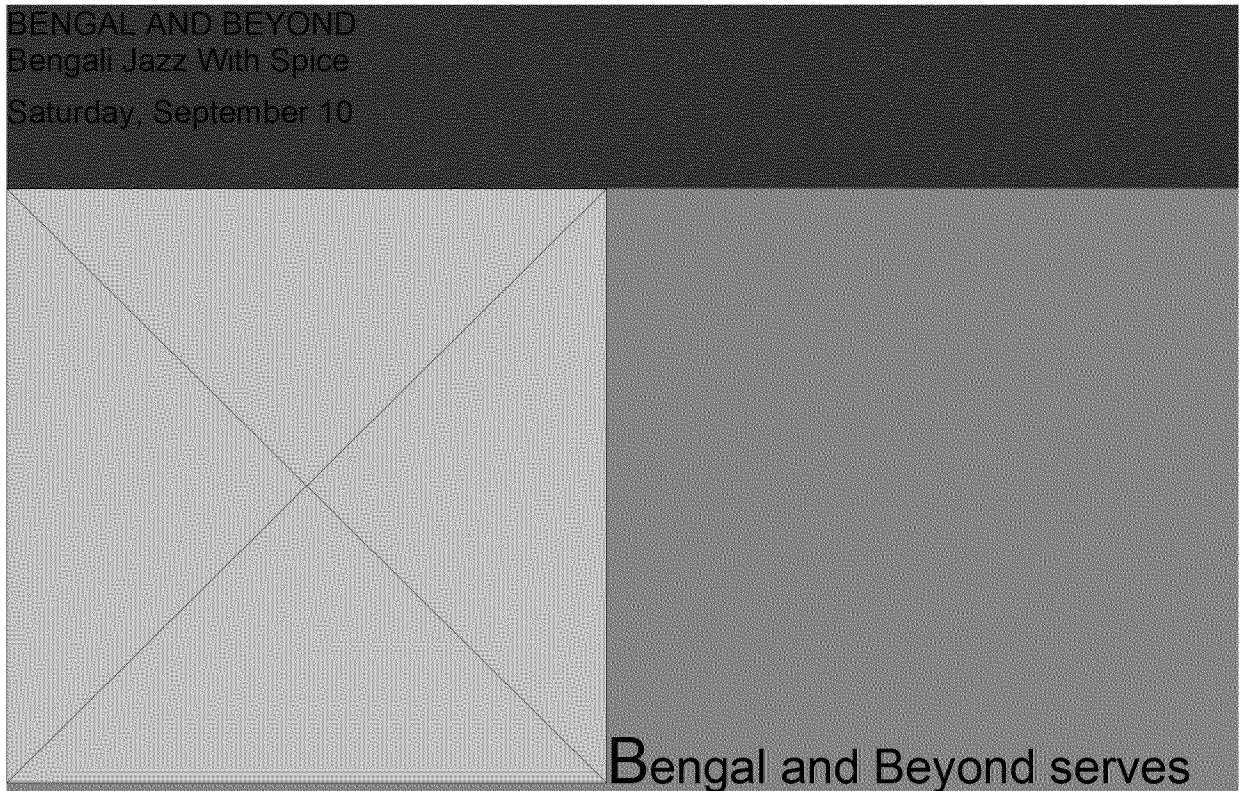

Subject: This Saturday Sep 10 at 8 pm Red Poppy Art House 2698 Folsom Street @ 23

We would love to see you this coming Saturday at 8 pm ! This is a small performance space and fills up quickly so please get there by 7:30 . Best, Bishu

~~~~~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

~~~~~

Saturday September 10 at the Red Poppy Art House
RED POPPY ART HOUSE
2698 Folsom Street @ 23rd Street
San Francisco, CA 94110
415.826.2402
<http://www.redpoppyarthouse.org/concerts.html>

up a tasty plate of Bengali music with a generous portion of jazz. The band performs original music and songs from India's Bengal region while embracing the contemporary jazz and global music scenes.

Sharmila Guha is a Los Angeles singer who studied classical and jazz singing. Sharmila has performed at the Thelonious Monk Jazz Institute and appeared in many jazz and classical venues in Los Angeles. In 2008, she released her debut jazz album, "If Music Be the Food of Love," featuring guitarist Larry Koonse, and bassist Kevin Axt. In 2009, she was a featured artist in LA's first Asian American Jazz Festival.

Prasant Radhakrishnan is a Resident Artist of the Red Poppy Art House who is a versatile saxophonist identified with both the South Indian Classical (Carnatic) and jazz disciplines. Prasant's exceptional approach to his music and instrument has been witnessed in a diverse range of locations around the world: from concert halls in India and jazz venues in Japan, to concerts, cultural festivals, and lecture demonstrations all over North America.

Bishu Chatterjee is a bassist and one of the founding members of the 1970s band Mohiner Ghoraguli, a pioneer of modern Bengali folk-rock music. In his bass playing Bishu incorporates Indian folk melodies and rhythms. Bishu has played with many jazz artists in the Bay Area and beyond.

Bryan Bowman is a drummer who has guided his musical journey toward the study of classical, jazz, rock, Balkan and North Indian classical music. Bryan recorded and toured the United States with RCA recording artists Behan/Johnson and also recorded and performed in the international music arena which such groups as Ivan Milev and Bulgarika, Edessa, Trio Mopmu with Lily Storm, Late Cift, Members of Kitka and Aleph Null.

Sharmila Guha: voice

Prasant Radhakrishnan: sax

Bishu Chatterjee: bass

Bryan Bowman: drums

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Mv3naVOXOM>

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WtYwiSiGRMs&feat>

$12-$15 admission. Doors at 7:30 pm. Show at 8:00 pm.