Sure,

My (updated) proposed status report today:

Dear ALJ Bushey,

On behalf of PG&E, SDG&E, SCE, SoCalGas, DRA, CPSD, TURN, Disability Rights Advocates, AT&T, and CCTA, I am submitting another report on the status of settlement discussions in this proceeding. There have been no settlement discussions since our last report on August 19. DRA, CPSD, TURN, and Disability Rights Advocates indicated that they wished to submit testimony before engaging in further discussions. Intervenors submitted testimony on September 12, and the joint utilities are evaluating that testimony. Center for Accessible Technology (CforAT) has filed a motion for party status asking to serve as the successor to Disability Rights Advocates, and that testimony regarding the interests of the disability community was submitted by CforAT. Additionally, if settlement discussions resume, CforAT expects to participate. Thank you for your continuing attention to this matter.

Please let me know if this report is ok with folks.

Best, Mike

Hi Mike:

Can you please note that since the prior report, Center for Accessible Technology (CforAT) has filed a motion for party status asking to serve as the successor to Disability Rights Advocates, and that testimony regarding the interests of the disability community was submitted by CforAT. Additionally, if settlement discussions resume, CforAT expects to participate.

Thank you.

Subject: RE: A.09-08-020 WEBA: Evidentiary hearing schedule

Hi all,

We told ALJ Bushey that we would once again report by today re the status of settlement discussions.

My proposed report:

Dear ALJ Bushey,

On behalf of PG&E, SDG&E, SCE, SoCalGas, DRA, CPSD, TURN, Disability Rights Advocates, AT&T, and CCTA, I am submitting another report on the status of settlement discussions in this proceeding. There have been no settlement discussions since our last report on August 19. DRA, CPSD, TURN, and Disability Rights Advocates indicated that they wished to submit testimony before engaging in further discussions. Intervenors submitted testimony on September 12, and the joint utilities are evaluating that testimony. Thank you for your continuing attention to this matter.

For reference, here is the last report we submitted:

On behalf of PG&E, SDG&E, SCE, SoCalGas, DRA, CPSD, TURN, Disability Rights Advocates, AT&T, and CCTA, I am submitting another report on the status of settlement discussions in this proceeding. Settlement discussions have been ongoing since our last report on August 5. However, DRA, CPSD, TURN, and Disability Rights Advocates have now indicated that they wish to submit testimony before engaging in further discussions. Accordingly, we will submit another report to you on or before September 16. Thank you for your continuing attention to this matter.

Please let me know if my proposed report for today looks ok.

Best, Mike
