Subject: Burlingame update

Michelle

Sara peralta just told me she will have the maps ready and that Redacted will cover the distribution and transmission integrity issues in her absence at our burlingame meeting on friday. Redac is very knowledgeable and sara will brief him on our previous meeting before she leaves this week and he will be ready.

So I think we have a team in place now.

We will await confirmation of time and place from you.

And did you reach todd with your other questions on the pipeline maps?
