Can you tell me whether any of the Line 101 submittal that is categorized as transmission was not reviewed/tested/validated? (i.e., any Class 1 or 2 that is not HCA but is transmission) If there is any transmission level pipe that is not validated, how many miles?

Sunil will be sending a similar request, along with a couple of others.

If you all have safety concerns and questions we would like an opportunity to discuss with you tomorrow. Sumeet has been getting data requests - as late as this morning - but I don't have a good sense of what the overall concern is, if there is overall concern.

I did put that together. Is tomorrow going to happen? We need to be working on a plan B if not.
