I sent this to Redacted this morning, FYI. On scheduling for Dec 1, I'd like him to meet Mike P, who has to leave about 1 for a CETF Board meeting. Can you bring Jim over earlier?

Subject: California PUC -- Safety and Rates

Jim, I see that we'll be getting together again December 1; looking forward to it. I wonder if I could tap you (or maybe Redacted would be good for this) for a few minutes on the phone with a former chief judge at the CPUC whom I've asked to lead a stakeholder process to come up with ways to improve the CPUC's handling of safety in our ratemaking cases.

What I thought you might be able to help with is some impressions based on experiences in/with other states. What states do this well? Who's got good ideas we can steal?

If you're amenable, I can work with your scheduler and get half an hour or so set up for a conference call. Thanks for considering.
