Subject: Updated Pressure Reduction map and spreadsheet

Michelle

Attached is an updated version of a spreadsheet showing pressure reductions. I believe you first saw this from Todd Hogenson when we met with you a couple weeks ago.

It is in the same format as the prior version provided, except that this version ends with Column M to include only information that is currently maintained and updated regularly.

There is also a data request form (in Word), and a map (in PDF).
As noted in the Word document, PG&E will provide this report bi-weekly through the end of the year.
Hope you get to enjoy Thanksgiving.
Laura
