Subject: REALLY EXCITING NEWS!!!!

I just received notice that for the first time ever, PG&E has been selected to receive one of the Top Corporations for Women Owned Businesses awards from the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC), which is the premiere organization in the WBE arena. The Award will be presented on March 22 in Baltimore. This is the top award a corporation can get for its WBE achievements! YEAH FOR US!!! Thanks to all for working together to achieve this distinction. Joan
