Subject: FW: LINK TO LISA'S WEBSITE

Lisa Urick was admitted to the hospital on December 26th and is currently in the ICU. She is resting peacefully and her husband Jim is reading messages to her posted on a website he has created, the link for which is in Dave Follett's message below. Friends of Lisa are encouraged to leave messages for her. The website, ALLLOVEFORLISA, also has a photo gallery and provides the latest on Lisa's status.

After you click on the link in Dave's message, you will go to a site entitled CarePages. To access Lisa's site, you will need to sign up to become a member. There is no obligation to receive messages from CarePages if you do not wish to. Once you have established a login and password and sign up, you will automatically go to Lisa's site. For some reason, you might see the message that your membership has "expired" but that is not correct. You should be able to navigate Lisa's site and click on the various tabs for the photo gallery, updates, and "messages" to leave a message.

Please forward this message along to anybody who knows Lisa and you think would like to visit her site or leave her a message. I'll trust each of you to forward this to people in your organization, like Marz for the Commission, Gloria for SCE, and Brian for PG&E. If anybody has Mark Fogelman's email, please send it to him as I'm sure he'll want to send it to folks at the CCPUC.

Please note that, as the website says, any request to visit Lisa should be sent to her husband Jim. A separate effort is underway to give this information to people in the company.

Dave
