Subject: FW: Luncheon for Bay Area based participants from the Black Corporate Directors Conference

Do you know if PG&E is sponsoring an event for Black Corporate Directors, etc. The event is next Thursday. ... I'm trying to contact the coordinator at PG&E to send regrets – unfortunately, Commissioner is unable to participate.

I write to ask your interest in attending a gathering of the Bay Area based participants at the recent Black Corporate Directors Conference. Several directors asked me , at the conclusion of the conference, to take the lead in putting together a regional meeting of the Bay Area participants so that we could better get to know each other. I would also suggest our discussing succession planning, i.e. recruiting for future Board positions, given in what I have heard is a recent 10% decline in Black Directorships in major public corporations.

Therefore I ask your interest in the following. I would appreciate your prompt response via email.

- 1. Would you be interested in attending such a meeting?*
- 2. Would you attend a first meeting if it were a lunch in S.F., with the view of rotating future meeting to the East Bay or the Peninsula and maybe including dinner?*
- 3. Should the group be expanded to include similar Black Directors who did not attend the meeting?
See Attached list.*

4. Should we include Black Directors of smaller public companies and Black CEO/COO's, i.e. likely candidates because of their positions to be considered for future corporate directorships? See attached list.

5. Have I left anyone off the initial list?

6. Would Dec. 1, 8, or 15 th be o.k. for the first lunch in S.F. I could arrange for PG&E to host the first luncheon at its S.F. headquarters.

I would appreciate your prompt response. As indicated, I have listed the potential invitees.

Thanks, Barry Williams
