Yes, understood. Unfortunately, there was much work required on the testimony over the weekend which definitely increased the number of documents cited to.

Michelle,

Just received an update that Bob/Darryl will provide us a new thumb drive with documents to be redacted tonight. The new drive has some of the same documents already requested, some new, and some eliminated. Unfortunately, there is no tracking or comparison so we working to see if we can get that from Darryl or Margaret soon for us to process this faster. You can understand how this compromises our Tuesday deadline for redactions.

Don't take this as a complaint – only as information on why we cannot meet the previous deadline. After we see the drive, we can assess how long we'll need.

Thanks.

Shilpa

I would say it is almost certainly after 3pm for release. Thanks for the update on redactions.

Michelle,

As a follow-up to our conversation Friday, the Records OII redactions are expected to be delivered to the CPUC tomorrow. We've warned Darryl, but there are a number of large documents with one over 15,000 pages so you'll need to consider how to post and/or release them.

Should we expect that OII Report to be released again after 3 PM today or a lunchtime release?

Thanks.

Shilpa
