Subject: RE: 10th Annual Diversity En Banc

Hello Everyone,

First off, my apologies for so much back-n-forth on this

Normally, I don't operate this inefficiently.

Oct 4th is now the date for the diversity en banc. It was Sept 20th, but there was a conflict on that date that I was not aware of.

Please note that it is very difficult to find a date that the CEO/Presidents are available and also members of the community and all of our 5 Commissioners. Basically, for every month there are only 6 open days once you take out two weeks for Commission meeting weeks, and Mondays and Fridays of the available weeks. So, we have two Tuesdays, two Wednesdays, and two Thursdays to work with every month. Then there is summer vacation, labor day week, and not to mention various celebration of diversity and minorities as well as various minority events already on calendar that cannot be touched... needless to say it is a frustrating process and I hope Oct 4th works with each of you.

The idea is to first get all 5 Commissioners, then all the participating CEOs and Presidents, and then everyone else.

Yes, this year we will have a big en banc assuming we actually find a date that is void of conflict.

Please only send me an email and Drisha if there is a conflict.

Oct 4th in Los Angeles

Regards,

marzia
