Even though we offered it, I'm now getting some pushback on bringing the hydrotest science fair demo over on Wednesday.

I guess it's a pain to haul around.

I like it at first but now am thinking it won't really make much of an impact sitting out in the hall as people walk by.

Shall we leave it out this time?

And I assume we'll make copies of the presentations for handouts, right? What number should we make?
