We filed our request as part of comments on the Resolution and asked for a ruling. Never got one.

Brian, I think an oral argument is reasonable. Has PG&E filed a motion to this effect?

No. This is the fine that resulted from the employees discovering we were missing maps. Procedurally, we asked for an en banc and haven't heard anything yet despite the fact that it is on the current agenda.

I was not aware of a request for an en banc. Is this a OSC?

Subject: Agenda Item 67

Carol and Timothy – Agenda item 67 is draft resolution ALJ-277, which imposes a fine of approximately $17 million on PG&E. We have filed comments asking for an en banc so that we can have the matter heard before a quorum of Commissioners. To date, we have not heard whether that en banc will be granted. We ask for a hold from someone so that we could have an opportunity to be heard on this matter before a vote.
