MOTION OF CAPITAL POWER CORPORATION FOR PARTY STATUS

Pursuant to Rule 1.4 and Rule 11.1(b) of the California Public Utilities Commission (“Commission”) Rules of Practice and Procedure, Capital Power Corporation (“Capital Power”) hereby moves for party status in the above-captioned proceeding.

Capital Power is a growth-oriented North American independent power producer. Headquartered in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Capital Power currently has interests in 31 facilities in Canada and the U.S. totaling approximately 3,500 megawatts of generation capacity. Capital Power and its subsidiaries and affiliates develop, acquire and optimize power generation from a wide range of energy sources. Capital Power currently operates four combined heat and power facilities in the State of California that have a combined capacity of 133 MW. The electricity and steam output from these facilities is currently sold under long-term contracts.

Capital Power is interested in opportunities to expand its power generation business, including renewable power generation, in the State of California, and as such has an interest in the matters that will be discussed and determined in this proceeding.

[PROPOSED] ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING ON MOTION OF CAPITAL POWER CORPORATION FOR PARTY STATUS

On April 23, 2012, Capital Power Corporation ("Capital Power") moved for party status in R.11-05-005. Capital Power has a direct and significant interest in this proceeding, and Capital Power's intervention will not unduly broaden the issues under consideration in this proceeding.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that, good cause appearing,

1. The request of Capital Power for party status in R.11-05-005 is granted.
2. Capital Power shall serve all parties of record and any other entities designated for service with any pleadings filed by Capital Power in this proceeding.

Dated _____, 2012 at San Francisco, California.
