Effective May ___, 2012, Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E"), the California Public Utilities Commission's ("Commission") Consumer Protection and Safety Division ("CPSD"), the Commission's Division of Ratepayer Advocates ("DRA"), The Utility Reform Network, the City of San Bruno, and the City and County of San Francisco (each a "Party," and together, the "Parties") agree as follows:

- 1. This Agreement is made for the purpose of facilitating the exploration of the possibility of agreeing to a stipulation for a resolution of issues with respect to PG&E's natural gas business that the parties would present to the Commission for its approval.
- 2. This Agreement is made with reference to Rule 12.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, which provides in relevant part:

No discussion, admission, concession or offer to settle, whether oral or written, made during any negotiation on a settlement shall be subject to discovery, or admissible in any evidentiary hearing against any participant who objects to its admission. Participating parties and their representatives shall hold such discussions, admissions, concessions, and offers to settle confidential and shall not disclose them outside the negotiations without the consent of the parties participating in the negotiations.

The Parties do not consider the fact that discussions are occurring to be confidential.

- 3. All discussions and all information provided by any Party in connection with the discussions shall be held confidential and not disclosed other than to a Party to the negotiations, or consultants to such Party, without the consent of all Parties. Communications between Parties concerning these negotiations, except the fact that discussions are occurring, are limited to those Parties who are signatories to the Acknowledgement and Agreement, and no Party may divulge such communications to CPUC Commissioners, Commissioner advisors, or any other CPUC staff or consultants, except staff and consultants representing or serving on behalf of the CPSD or DRA. Such information shall not be admissible in any proceeding without the consent of all Parties. These restrictions on the use of information provided in connection with negotiations do not apply to information that a party also obtains by other lawful means, such as discovery.
- 4. This Agreement has no effect on, and shall not apply to, a Party's use or disclosure of its own information or statements for any purpose whatever.

ACKNOWLEDGMI	ENT AND AGREEMENT
I, PATRICK S. BER	DGE, have read the foregoing Confidentiality
	Company, the Commission's Consumer Protection and Safety Division, the Commission's Divi	sion of Ratepayer Advocates, The Utility Reform
Network, the City of San Bruno, and the C	ity and County of San Francisco and agree to be bound by its terms.
Dated: May 2, 2013	Patrick of lay

Effective May ___, 2012, Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E"), the California Public Utilities Commission's ("Commission") Consumer Protection and Safety Division ("CPSD"), the Commission's Division of Ratepayer Advocates ("DRA"), The Utility Reform Network, the City of San Bruno, and the City and County of San Francisco (each a "Party," and together, the "Parties") agree as follows:

- 1. This Agreement is made for the purpose of facilitating the exploration of the possibility of agreeing to a stipulation for a resolution of issues with respect to PG&E's natural gas business that the parties would present to the Commission for its approval.
- 2. This Agreement is made with reference to Rule 12.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, which provides in relevant part:

No discussion, admission, concession or offer to settle, whether oral or written, made during any negotiation on a settlement shall be subject to discovery, or admissible in any evidentiary hearing against any participant who objects to its admission. Participating parties and their representatives shall hold such discussions, admissions, concessions, and offers to settle confidential and shall not disclose them outside the negotiations without the consent of the parties participating in the negotiations.

- 3. All discussions and all information provided by any Party in connection with the discussions shall be held confidential and not disclosed other than to a Party to the negotiations, or consultants to such Party, without the consent of all Parties. Communications between Parties concerning these negotiations, except the fact that discussions are occurring, are limited to those Parties who are signatories to the Acknowledgement and Agreement, and no Party may divulge such communications to CPUC Commissioners, Commissioner advisors, or any other CPUC staff or consultants, except staff and consultants representing or serving on behalf of the CPSD or DRA. Such information shall not be admissible in any proceeding without the consent of all Parties. These restrictions on the use of information provided in connection with negotiations do not apply to information that a party also obtains by other lawful means, such as discovery.
- 4. This Agreement has no effect on, and shall not apply to, a Party's use or disclosure of its own information or statements for any purpose whatever.
- 5. All employees, agents or representatives of the Parties shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement, and shall so signify by signing the attached Acknowledgment and Agreement.
