Subject: RE: Discovery Confidentiality Agreements with Non-CPUC Parties

Michelle,

We do not have confidentiality agreements for the OIIs with any of those parties. We talked with CCSF about executing one, but could not reach agreement due to some San Francisco municipal code provisions that they viewed as requiring them to turn over materials even if subject to a CA. As a result, we have provided CCSF with redacted copies of documents that contain 583 material.

If you are willing to identify the data request responses you want to share, we can redact those promptly (assuming the volume is not huge).

Please let me know if you would like to pursue that path.

Joe

Subject: Discovery Confidentiality Agreements with Non-CPUC Parties

Joe- I wanted to check whether PG&E has previously executed discovery confidentiality agreements with TURN, City of San Bruno, or City/County of San Francisco. I am asking because there are some data request responses from PG&E to our discovery requests that CPSD would like to share with the parties that are pursuing a stipulated resolution to the enforcement cases that were provided under 583. If confidentiality agreements have already been executed, it would greatly simplify things and allow us to simply provide copies of responses that were provided under 583 to us.

Please let me know.

Thank you.
