Thanks. Good remarks. I could have given them myself.

Brian,
Can you please share this with Mike?

This was a high-profile event that included the Governor, Clinton and Condoleezza Rice.
Thanks.
Tom

All,

FYI. Per my previous note, Tony delivered a major speech this week about the importance of investing in the nation's energy infrastructure at the Bay Area Council. I thought you might want a copy of his remarks (see attached), along with a link to our story on Currents.
