Subject: Couple items

1. Got my butt kicked today regarding SVTC. Could have used some help. Did Redacted and the SVLG (?) weigh in? Yes, my colleagues are small minded, no vision, etc., but we should have gotten one of them. You must do a better job going forward. Frankly, this project had a lot going for it and was killed by the smuck group. You should have let me know if you felt it was in trouble and I could have tried a couple of things to get a third vote, though I already had moved some ways on this. Outcome was bad for Silicon Valley, the company, the Commission and the state.

2. LLNL will face trouble too. I told Ferron he had to go visit and he said he will. I told him I would have someone from LLNL call him. So, please give me the name and phone number of the African-American fellow who is in charge on business development at LLNL. I will have him extend an invite to Ferron, per my discussion with Ferron (yes, not a visionary, but we have to make the effort).

Thanks.
