Two hours flies! Actually, today has been kind of eerily quiet at work, with our internet connection being down (it's back up now). Hoping that's a good thing (the quiet, I mean). Yes, nice to catch up and to hear your perspective on the same set of facts. Funny how even from the different vantage point, we still end up at more or less the same conclusions...

Enjoy the rest of your week and long weekend. SAay hi to Larry, too. Pam says hi!

J.

Can't believe we were there 2 hours! Really, I thought it was maybe 1:15. Fun though, and I really needed the catch-up.

Thanks for the time. Hope it doesn't screw up your day too badly.

See you soon I hope.

Carol Brown tells me it is actually reasonably priced. Want to just meet outside there around noon?

Oooh -- new French place! It's probably pricey, but perhaps we could share something . . . ;)

I'm very happy not to do Max's.

Really looking forward to it.

So far so good. I also did not invite Terrie- figured we could just do the two of us. Would you mind somewhere else besides Max's? A little further afield? Maybe cafe Della Stella or the Grove ? Or even the new French place where trader Vic's used to be? I have not yet tried it.
