Meredith:

On May 8, I sent you an email submitted the background information of the BEPC delegation visit to PG&E. I'd like to call you in your convenience to update you the visit and to answer any questions you might have. Would you please provide a phone number so I can call you?

Thank you!!!

Mr. Thalman:

Two days ago, I have sent you an email informing you the BEPC visit. Understanding you are very busy, I'd like to know if you can appoint some one as a PG&E contact person so I can work with.

The delegation consists of six people headed by Mr. An Jianqinag, Vice President of BEPC. Please see the attachment for all the delegation members.

Thank you very much for your help!
