Hi Audrey,

Below is a general description of the proceedings that are covered by each person in our group with their contact information, as you discussed with Brian. Right now I'm in an interim role leading the group, but I am covering a few cases. We are planning a reorganization that will happen mid-year and therefore, these assignments will change. I will send you an update when that occurs.

It would be great to grab lunch or coffee when you have a chance. I'm traveling later next week but would Monday or Tuesday of next week work?

Please let me know if you have any questions on the assignments.

Thanks,
Meredith
