Subject: PG&E's 2012 Hydrotest Data

Hi Sunil:

We have compiled the 2012 hydrotest data that we have to date and we are updating our 2011 hydrotest data to include more test information such as H-forms. The 2012 data is ready now, but I need another day to complete the 2011 data. If we FedEx a flash drive to you tomorrow so that it arrives at your office on Wednesday this week, would that work for you? Otherwise, I could FedEx the 2012 data so that it arrives tomorrow if we send it by 4:30. Let me know what works best for you. Also, could you please provide the best address to send an overnight package to you? Thanks
