Subject: Safety Leadership Conference

Mike,

On behalf of the Board and the leadership team at PG&E, I want to thank you for holding this week's Safety Leadership Conference. Bob Sumwalt and Mort Downey spoke directly to the challenges we face in building our own safety culture and restoring trust. As Board member Barbara Rambo noted, the exchange was "insightful and valuable."

I couldn't agree more with your comment that we are all in this together. This conference was a welcome example of positive regulatory communication on a critical issue, and we look forward to continuing collaborative discussions around safety.

Tony
