Subject: FW: Late-filed Compensation Request

Earlier today, I sent the following email to ALJ Allen. It is my understanding that ALJ Allen is out of the office and will not return until July 2nd.

Subject: Late-filed Compensation Request

ALJ Allen:

As you know, compensation requests are due today in the LTPP for substantial contributions to D.12-04-046. My computer developed a hardware failure earlier today and it is unlikely that I will be able to meet the deadline. I will not be able to recover the data until June 29th. Apparently, I have two choices:

1. File a latefiled compensation request on June 30th.
2. File a compensation request today and then file an amended request on June 30th.

Which should I do?

If I file a latefiled compensation request, do I also need to file a motion asking permission to file late?

Thanks,

Jan Reid
