Hello R.12-03-014, (list 2 of 3)
Attached is the agenda and presentation for the Monday, June 4 meeting on Operating Flexibility Analysis (also known as renewable integration / variability). Note that we will be attempting to Webex this meeting for those participating remotely. We are aiming to have the Webex up around 945. Due to the file size of the presentation, the CPUC's FTP server is being used to host the PPT file. Best, Nat
