Dear Friend and Colleague:

You are cordially invited to represent your company at an Information Reception to introduce an exciting non-profit organization -- Hire America's Heroes -- to your company. If you are not the right person to attend, we welcome one of the following types of persons from your company: the chief operating officer, the senior human resources officer, and/or your talent/hiring manager.

Hire America's Heroes, a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, has proven to be a force-multiplier for Seattle, Washington corporations interested in employing military veterans. After risking their lives for freedom, we want to help our veterans get a job! Attend this informative session to learn how Hire America's Heroes takes a unique approach to foster collaboration and best-practice-sharing among major corporations like Alaska Airlines, Comcast, Microsoft, and others. Share in a discussion exploring formation of a new California chapter of Hire America's Heroes that can offer California companies the same veteran employment success strategies that have been so effective in the State of Washington.
