

From: Cherry, Brian K
Sent: 7/18/2012 3:57:17 PM
To: Cooke, Michelle (michelle.cooke@cpuc.ca.gov)
Cc:
Bcc:
Subject: RE: any possibility you can call me before 3:30?

Michelle – just got back. Should be free at 430pm. Malkin called the prosecutors to find out what the admissions would look like. The prosecutors said they wanted PG&E to plead to a criminal deal and reserve the right to keep the case open to pursue individuals. Joe told them that was unacceptable and that we would not agree to those types of admissions. Prosecutors said that's where we are now and if PG&E can't agree to accept that, they would stop their work. That's what has happened.

From: Cooke, Michelle [mailto:michelle.cooke@cpuc.ca.gov]
Sent: Wednesday, July 18, 2012 3:22 PM
To: Cherry, Brian K
Subject: any possibility you can call me before 3:30?
Importance: High

Need run down on whatever occurred yesterday.

Joe Malkin left Harvey message that PG&E decided that they cannot move forward with the criminal task force if individual prosecution remains on the table so there is an impasse with the criminal task force.

I need to know: 1) who made decision? (i.e., Board of Directors or ?) 2) why would PG&E make this call before seeing whatever the task force would present on 7/23?

ARRRGGGHHH!!!

p.s., meeting at 3:30 related to this and it would be helpful if I had some insight into this before that meeting, especially #1.

thanks.

Michelle Cooke, Director

Information Technology and Management Services Division

California Public Utilities Commission

415 703 2163

415 987 1184

mlc@cpuc.ca.gov