Colette

I can't even remember if I responded to this wonderful note . . . it's Thursday!!

Thanks for sending this.

I have to say that I THOUGHT I knew something about your background but I really hadn't put the pieces together as you have below. What an amazing story you have! I think these stories are important to share, and I'm hoping AWWEE will be able to put other things together that allow that.

You are amazing.
Thanks for sharing.
Laura

Thanks Laura for doing such a magnificent job of facilitating such a successful meeting in such a beautiful hotel with such fabulous women. I liked the way you set the stage by referring to the Yahoo appointment and then asking probing questions about both work and personal challenges! Obviously, a great time was had by all! And we all learned by tremendous examples!

In addition to other jobs, I have been in the energy business several decades--Chevron (11 years), PG&E (7 years), EPRI (2 years), Siebel Systems/acquired by Oracle (2 years), and CPUC (9 years). In the early days I remember how the rules were different. I had three kids along the way and only took six weeks after each child and the father of my children, then City Attorney in SF, had to stay home when the kids were sick and go to meetings at the school during the day. Luckily, things have changed a lot with flexible work schedules, more engagement by dads, and telecommuting trends, etc.

There were so few working professional moms back then, that we formed our own organization in the East Bay and met for ten years with major speakers that provided us tips, etc. The network has obviously grown since then.

Thanks for the restaurant tip. I myself will need to try North Beach Restaurant sometime maybe when I take out of town guests to Beach Blanket Babylon! I lived in the City for 15 years but have never been there!

Talk soon!

Colette

Commissioner

You were terrific today, no surprise. One of the women there said afterward "I have never had the chance to hear from a PUC Commissioner in such an open way. She's impressive!". You were inspirational and down to earth simultaneously.

Hope you are home by now.

I also hope this is the right email address for you.

Here is brian cherry's italian suggestion: "The best Italian traditional is at North Beach Restaurant hosted by Lorenzo "King of North Beach" Petroni."

See you in Portland.

All the best,
Laura
