Matthew –

Definitely not a step ahead of you. I will get an answer for your question soon, might bring somebody on a phone call to you about it.

Sid – attached is a write up to provide Tisdale. Also attached are some example reports, if you think it is a good idea to share with him. A big thanks to John for pulling this together. I will be in Stockton tomorrow with Rahmon, so if you need anything else on this, or have any questions, please work with John directly.

Subject: art tool and cities?

David –

Tisdale asked me to give him information about our efforts to share information with cities using the art tool and other means, can you help me get him some information about this? I think we can start by just narrating what cities we've worked with and what kinds of things we've been able to share. Thanks.
